		Response Percent	Response Count
1. Create a sixth-grade academy at the Ron McNair building for 2009-10 and close it the following year, remove sixth grade from Birney and Morningside for 2009-10 school year and change Birney to third through fifth grade school in 2010-11 and change Morningside back to sixth through eighth grade school in 2010-11, close Brentwood Middle in 2009-10 and reopen it in 2010-11 as a Garrett Junior Academy, close Charlestowne Academy, use current Stall High building (a new Stall High is being built) to serve Birney sixth through eighth graders in a partial magnet school in 2010-11, Morningside and the Stall High campus would be single-gender campuses (that means one school would be all girls and the other would be all boys), every middle school would offer a partial magnet program, open Jerry Zucker Middle in 2009-10 and allow it to eventually serve sixth through eighth grades.		27.4%	149
2. Same as first option except Morningside and the Stall High campus would not be single-gender schools.		5.9%	32
3. Same as second option except Birney would serve sixth grade next year and eighth grades from Zucker and Morningside Middle schools would be served at Ron McNair campus for the 2009-10 school year before the eighth grades would be returned to both schools.		2.8%	15
